

A postcard from the pigs...

Peggy and Bertie Blackwell

When the teachers are away, the guineas will play!...or at least sleep. Now that Miss Kuriger is with Purple Class each day, we are home alone. So, we've taken our foot off the pedal on the learning a bit (but don't tell her). We have swapped maths for eating, literacy for snoozing and topic for bonus snacking. This is the sort of learning we are best at. Miss Kuriger won't let us in the garden in the day as she said we would roast so instead we have been out in the evening until 10pm...on a school night! We don't mind the dark.

Hope you are all getting on well with your learning. Love from Peggy and Bertie xxx

A postcard from the pooch...

Hetty Blackwell

Oh I am so so glad I had a haircut last week! Can you imagine if I had kept the long hair in this weather? I would have been cooked.

I have spent my time doing a fair bit of sunbathing, resting, lying down and developing my imagination whilst dreaming. I have also worked out that school books make a very good pillow. I promise I will do a bit more learning next week!

Florence tells me all about school when she gets home. I am still being a good 'Stay at Home Superhero'. My power is making chicken disappear very quickly. Lots of love from Hetty xxx
